Weekend delivery is by pre-arrangement only.

*Once the shipment is released by Torrent Laboratory, Inc., reception, retention, and return of the canisters and associated materials are the sole responsibility of the ordering party (“client”). Lost or stolen canisters and materials will be charged to the client, and reimbursement costs will be due upon invoicing.

Shipments within the State of California by “standard shipping” is complementary and will be processed by Torrent. Shipments outside the State of California may require prorated charges to the client and will be shipped by the best available method, including - but not limited to - FedEx, UPS, DHL, or OnTrac. Any client-requested overnight shipments that incur additional handling costs are the responsibility of the client.

*Cancellation of the project after submitting your canister order will result in cancellation charges. Batch certified canister orders of >10 - $1000, 6-10 - $500, <6 - $250. In addition, self-certified canisters will be billed at $100 per canister.

Canisters and associated materials will not be shipped until a signed form is received by the laboratory.
